Full description

A five-day trip from Puerto Montt to Lake General Carrera, with lodging, transfers, and boat trips included. We cross the Reloncaví estuary and the Comau fjord to Caleta Gonzalo, explore Pumalín Park and its ancient larch trees, see the Colgante glacier in Queulat National Park, and pass through Cerro Castillo to Puerto Río Tranquilo and the Marble Chapels. Itineraries are subject to change depending on weather conditions and ferry schedules.

What's included

Ground transportation, boat crossings through the Reloncaví, Comau, and Largo fjords to Caleta Gonzalo, lodging with breakfast and a private bathroom, national park admission tickets, hiking within the parks, and 24-hour assistance throughout the trip.

Not included

Admission to hot springs, a boat trip to the Queulat glacier on Laguna Témpanos, a boat or kayak trip on Lake General Carrera, and lunches and dinners. It is recommended to take the return flight from Balmaceda after 3:00 p.m.

Meeting point

Departs from Puerto Montt (Kilometer Zero) at 9:00 a.m. Ends at Balmaceda Airport.
