Full description

Duckies are stable, easy-to-handle inflatable kayaks: instead of sharing a raft with a group, each person (or pair) paddles their own boat, always with a guide. There are three sections. Limay river, from Rincón Chico to Villa Llanquín: half a day, ideal as a first taste of a mountain river. Lower Manso river, from Lake Steffen to the old sawmill: full day with lunch. Manso river to the border, from Campo de John to the Chilean border: a full day for those with some experience (from age 16). All require average fitness and swimming ability; minimum age 14.

What's included

Transfers, guide, river gear (waterproof jacket and trousers, or wetsuit depending on the section) and refreshments. Lunch included on the Manso sections.

Not included

Personal items. Bring swimwear, sandals or water shoes, a fleece, a towel, a change of clothes and sunscreen.
