Full description

An afternoon on the Atacama salt flat. Cejar lagoon is so salty that you float effortlessly, like in the Dead Sea. Next we visit the Ojos del Salar, two freshwater pools that look like a pair of eyes in the desert, and we finish at Tebenquiche lagoon, with its reflections and salt crust, where we toast the sunset with a cocktail. Maximum altitude 2,500 m. Minimum age 6; not suitable during pregnancy.
