Full description

We pick you up at your hotel at 8:30 am and drive along the Avenue of the Volcanoes towards Quilotoa. On the way we stop in Tigua, a community of artists known for their paintings and masks, and at the Toachi river canyon, which also helps you acclimatise before reaching the crater rim at almost 4,000 metres.

From the top, the view over the emerald lagoon is breathtaking. Hiking down into the crater is optional: you can stay at the viewpoint or walk down to the water and come back up on foot or by mule. After an Andean lunch, the private transport drops you at your hotel in Baños, with your luggage on board if you come from Quito, without any public buses.

What's included

Private transport, hotel pick-up and drop-off (Baños or Quito), stops on the Avenue of the Volcanoes, Tigua and the Toachi canyon, entry to the Quilotoa lagoon and a local guide.

Not included

Meals and drinks not listed, kayak or mule at the lagoon, accommodation, personal expenses and tips.

Meeting point

Pick-up at your hotel in Baños or Quito at 8:30 am. The tour can end at your hotel in Baños, so it also works as a transfer from Quito to Baños.
