Full description

Discover fly fishing in Bariloche on a private trip planned around your experience, interests and the seasonal conditions. We choose the water that is fishing best among the Limay, Manso and Pichi Leufú rivers or nearby lakes in Nahuel Huapi National Park.

Half-day trips are mainly offered on the Limay River and last approximately 6 hours from pickup to return. Full-day trips last 10 to 11 hours, provide more fishing time and include a generous Argentine lunch beside the river.

No previous experience is required. Our bilingual guides patiently teach beginners and help experienced anglers make the most of every run. Each guide and boat is private for one or two anglers.

The displayed price is an indicative per-person rate for a half-day trip based on two anglers. Contact us for the current solo, full-day or Manso River rate.

What's included

Round-trip transfers from your Bariloche accommodation; professional bilingual guide; private drift boat, raft or motorboat when required; complete fishing gear when needed; drinks; half-day snack or full-day Argentine lunch with Malbec; pre-trip advice.

Not included

Fishing license (USD 40 per person per day; we can arrange it); guide gratuity; accommodation.

Meeting point

Pickup and drop-off at the traveler's accommodation in central San Carlos de Bariloche. Exact time and destination are confirmed according to fishing conditions.
