Full description

In the Huechelepun and Carilafquén areas, Melipeuco hides waterfalls amid native forests and lava flows. This tour combines low-intensity hikes with natural viewpoints, ideal for photography and for those looking to unwind.

We visit the Truful-Truful Falls, the 1751 lava viewpoint, the Quillén Falls (three waterfalls), the Carilafquén Falls and lagoon, and the Chufquén Falls, while the guide shares the history and culture of the region. During the tour, you can add—with advance notice and for an additional fee—a zipline that the operator claims is the highest in Chile. Suitable for the whole family, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

What's included
