I'm Frank, from Chicago, and I've been living in Buenos Aires since 1999. I came here for love and stayed for the asado. Since 2016, we've been hosting small groups in Palermo to cook and eat just like they do in a local neighborhood: we make chimichurri in our home kitchen, walk to a community garden and a wine bar, and return to the grill to learn from the asado masters. In addition to the asado experience, we offe...
